

Proposal:

Create an SU Intellectual Policy that amends the BOR IV-3.20 in the following sections:

III. DEFINITIONS

H. Technology-Mediated Instructional Materials. Materials including but not limited to course syllabi; tests, quizzes, exams and assignments; lectures that are fixed in a print, audio-video, electronic, or digital form; laboratory manuals; visual materials such as tables, charts, diagrams, transparencies, films and film strips, photographs and illustrations; video and/or audiotaped readings, performances, programs; computer programs and software; and multimedia materials and projects incorporating some or all of the above materials that are used in course instruction.

I. University. Salisbury University.

VIII. TECHNOLOGY-MEDIATED INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS.

A. Ownership

- 1) By Creator. Personnel and Students shall own original Technology-Mediated Instructional Materials that they create unless:
 - a) Otherwise agreed to, in writing, with the University; or
 - b) Technology-Mediated Instructional Materials are created pursuant to a Sponsored Research Agreement.
- 2) By Written Agreement. The agreements referred to in Section VIII.A.1) shall address, at a minimum:
 - a) Responsibility for payment of costs incurred to develop Technology-Mediated Instructional Materials; and
 - b) Limitations and conditions on the right of the University, Personnel or Students to use Technology-Mediated Instructional Materials; and
 - c) Authority to register copyright in, seek patent protection for, or otherwise protect Technology-Mediated Instructional Materials; and
 - d) Compensation (Salary, Stipend, Honoraria) to Personnel and Students. Compensation to Personnel and Students shall not be based on enrollment without the prior approval of the University.
