Vision

SACS is guided by the belief that a community exists on the basis of shared values and principles. We aim to foster a community, at Salisbury University and beyond, where integrity and respect are the established norm, and where each community member understands that this is a responsibility that must be shared by all. Students, through their interactions with our office, will feel empowered to (re)define their behavior and become responsible members of their community

Mission

Housed within the Dean of Students Office, the mission of SACS is to maintain the integrity of the campus community and foster student learning, development and success by upholding the University's community standards through proactive programming for the campus community, individual student conversations, alternative resolution practices, and the establishment of a fair and educational framework to address potential violations of the Code of Community Standards.

Goals

The goals of SACS are to:

- x Educate members of the campus community about applicable policies, regulations and statuses governing their behavior.
- x Uphold community standards at the University, in the local community and beyond through the resolution of alleged violations of the University's Code of Community Standards through a process that is procedurally sound, community-focused and learning-centered.
- x Provide an outlet for community members to address conflict through alternative resolution practices.
- x Encourage learning outcomes, personal responsibility and accountability, as well as responsible decision-making through the services, programs, and activities provided.

Scope of Practice – Services Provided

SACS provides the following services to the campus community:

- ” Develop, interpret and implement the Code of Community Standards.
- ” Investigate and resolve alleged violations of the Code of Community Standards through the implementation of a student accountability process that is procedurally sound, community-focused and learning centered.
- ” Develop and implement adaptable resolution pathways for complaints and/or reports of misconduct that do not constitute a violation of University policy or in circumstances where a formal resolution is not desired by the complainant.
- ” Recruit, train and supervise Case Administrators, Community Hearing Board members and other participants in the student accountability process.
- ” Create learning opportunities for students through our services, programs, activities, and educational sanctions.
- ” Provide programming on accountability, integrity, civility and other ethical issues to the University community.
- ” Advise University and Student Affairs leadership, and other members of the University

- ” Provide disciplinary verification for study abroad programs, transfer admission applications or applications for graduate/professional programs, employment, etc. upon verification of authorization to release such information.
- ” Review previous disciplinary history reported on applications for admission in accordance with established procedures, and provide a recommendation to the admissions office, which will make a final determination of acceptance.

Student Learning Outcomes

Students who engage in services, programs, and activities provided by SACS will be able to:

1. Articulate Salisbury University’s standards of behavior outlined in the Code of Community Standards
2. Recognize why standards of conduct exist and why the University is concerned about student behavior.
3. Identify how their actions are consistent or inconsistent with their personal and community values and expectations.
4. Develop an action plan that will help them be successful at Salisbury University and beyond, and avoid future violations of the University’s Code of Community Standards.
5. Describe how their interaction with the SACS will help them (re)define their behavior and be(come) responsible members of the community.
